Natural Stone is a product of nature and therefore we can not guarantee uniformity of color, veining or other characteristics. This does not affect the product performance in any way. Variations in color, fissures, markings, micro-cracks and pitting are all natural characteristics of stone and not considered defects. Stone should never be stepped or sat upon.

Laporte Surfaces 1 year workmanship warranty does not cover any structural shift or extreme pressure, or items placed on the stone which could result in damage to the stone, or cause it to scratch, crack or chip.

Laporte will not accept liability for any classification of stone that may not be geologically accurate.
